Members Officiate With the National Fraternal
Body

The Lancaster police force is now organized, Lancaster Red Rose Lodge, Fraternal Order of Police, having been instituted Sunday morning by Organizer D. H. Nagle, of Pittsburgh, in which city the order was formed in 1913. It is not a union, but a fraternal order, destined some day to be beneficial.

Following were the officers elected and installed on Sunday: President, Henry J. Winower; Vice President, David H. Trapnell; Secretary, Charles F. Aument; Treasurer, Peter J. Bauer; Trustees, Jonas A. Goodman, H. D. Young and T. H. Morgan; Directors, Harry Feltz, John F. Bair, Charles F. Herchelroth, Jesse Brown and George W. McCue.

At the meeting on Sunday thirty-eight members of the force were present. Next Sunday the rest of the force will be initiated, at that meeting, like Sunday's, being held at Odd Fellows' Hall, No. 40 West King street.
