

OLD OFFICERS HONOR CAPTAIN

Walter G. Bushong Will Receive
Loving Cup As Testimonial
Of Their Esteem.

FRATERNAL ORDER DISBANDS

Members of the old police force of Lancaster, with a number of invited guests, made merry on Tuesday evening in the home of the Clover Relief association in Rossmere, formerly the quarters of the Lancaster Country Club. Some of the men spent the majority of the day there, but the festivities took place in the evening. The absence of former Chief of Police Walter G. Bushong was a great disappointment, because arrangements had been made to present a loving cup to him. Unfortunately he was detained on business in Philadelphia. The banquet was delayed nearly an hour in the hope that one of the trains from the city would bring him to Lancaster.

Long tables filled the main room of the club house, and here Caterer George W. Carmen served one of his best turkey dinners, to which full justice was done. At the conclusion, Charles F. Aument, chairman of the committee of arrangements, introduced Alderman W. S. Doebler, saying that there was something there for former chief Bushong. He showed the huge silver, gold lined loving cup which had been purchased by the members of his force as a testimonial of their
