

37 CITY 'COPPERS' JOIN FRATERNITY

Pierce Clark, president of the Reading lodge, and Patrolman John Brouse, of Reading.

The charter of the local chapter will be open for about three weeks and the officers of the organization state that the membership of the local police will be 100 per cent by that time. The order is national in its scope having chapters in all the large cities throughout the country. The local chapter will meet once each month.

Among the officers admitted to the organization at the meeting last night are the following: Captain Frank Bradycamp, Detectives William Sullenberger and Daniel W. Shaub, Lieutenant Blaine W. Silvius, Sergeants Lewis Matt, Ray Charles and David Shank, Traffic Officer Louis Piersol, Motorcycle Officers James Crawford, Carl Wenninger, Raphael Kamm, John Kauffman, Jason Noltenmacher, Walter Yarnell, S. Warren Hartley, William Jenkins, Herman Sandoe and
