

POLICE ELECT LIEUT. KIRCHNER

Named Head of Red Rose Lodge at Special Election.

Lieutenant John Kirchner was elected president of Red Rose Lodge No. 16, Fraternal Order of Police, at a special election held at police headquarters yesterday.

It was fourth time the members had balloted. Two elections had resulted in deadlocks and the third was challenged on the legality of a "sticker" candidate.

Other officers elected yesterday were: vice president, Detective William Sollenberger; treasurer, Policeman William Jenkins; recording secretary, A. F. Montgomery; financial secretary, Miss Agnes Ferriter; guard, Charles Smeltzer; delegate to national convention, Policeman Samuel Alt-house; alternate, Detective Sullenberger; trustee, Lieutenant Ray Charles and Sergeant David Shank.

Policemen H. N. Weaver and Paul Glick were tied for the other trustee office and the deadlock will be settled at the next meeting.

1931 Election

Clipped By:

bhambright
Thu, Apr 30, 2020