Flag Raised At Police Home

DEDICATE HOME OF CITY POLICE

Mayor Cary Presides At Exercises; Named For Commissioner Carlson

The new home of the Red Rose lodge, No. 16, Fraternal Order of Police, composed of members of the city police department, was dedicated in honor of Commissioner of Police Albert Carlson at special ceremonies held at the home, near Mountville, Thursday afternoon.

Mayor D. E. Cary, who delivered the dedicatory address, told approximately 100 members and guests that it was appropriate that the home be dedicated to a man who has done much for the department and the city. He also praised the men for working together in unity which he asserted was necessary for efficient police work.

FLAG RAISING CEREMONY

The flag raising ceremony was in charge of Lieutenant Amos Shultz, vice-commander of Post 34, American Legion, and a call to the colors was sounded by four buglers from the post drum corps. A minute of silence was observed in memory of deceased members of the force. A prayer was offered by City Commissioner Daniel W. Coulter.
