The ceremonies were held in conjunction with the annual summer outing of the lodge. The outing started Thursday morning and continued until late Thursday night in order that all policemen could attend. The committee in charge of the outing included: Sergeant Ray Charles, chairman; Policemen Earl Labezius, Harry Brenner, John Kipphorn, and Elwood Rutter.

The new home was remodeled by members of the lodge, working under the direction of the home committee. This committee includes Lieutenant R. J. Kamm, Sergeant Albert Montgomery and Policemen William Jenkins and Charles Resh.

Other guests of honor attending the dedication were City Commissioners Donald M. Mylin and Daniel W. Coulter, City Solicitor Ber-
