

School Safety Patrol members treated by FOP

Red Rose Lodge 16, Fraternal Order of Police, showed its appreciation to the city's School Safety Patrol members Friday morning.

Lodge members gave a Christmas party for the children at the King Theatre, E. King Street. More than 300 youngsters attended.

Officer George Schreder, lodge vice president and chairman of the party, said he hopes the affair will become an annual event.

The school patrol members were treated to a series of film cartoons and then were given candy.

Morton Brodsky, theater owner, was presented with an associate membership in the local FOP lodge in appreciation for his role in the party. It was presented by Sgt. James McMullin.
