who will," Schreder said.

The council Tuesday approved resolutions formally authorizing pay raises for police and firemen that include across-the-board increases of six per cent and longevity increases.

Monaghan said that even though the legislature didn't provide for negotiation between municipalities and other city employes, the city's remaining 300 employes also will be granted increases on the basis of talks that will take place between their representatives and city negotiators.

He said in response to a question by Councilman Jack B. Metzger concerning funds for salary increases that councilmen would receive proposed budgets as soon as possible.

Dr. Metzger urged the budget be kept "as low as possible within reasonable limits."
