FOP Cites 2 City Police

Lt. J. Frank Greenawalt and Sgt. James B. McMullin, both of the city police traffic unit, were cited by Red Rose Lodge No. 16, Fraternal Order of Police, Thursday night for their work in developing the new lodge home at Engleside.

For "a job well done," the two officers received plaques and electric wrist watches.

George Schreder, lodge president, noted that the two had spent "hundreds of hours of their time and labor to benefit the lodge."

The new lodge home is located at Engleside along the Conestoga Creek.
