

JENKINS HEADS RED ROSE LODGE

Lancaster Chapter Starts With 37 in Fraternal Order of Police.

Motorcycle Officer William Jenkins was elected president of Red Rose Lodge, No. 16, Fraternal Order of Police, at the organization meeting last night in the police station. Thirty-seven members of the police department were admitted as charter members.

Other officers elected are Patrolman Fred Delsley, vice president; Detective Daniel Shaub, financial and recording secretary; Detective William Sullenberger, treasurer; Patrolman Morgan Medlar, conductor; Patrolman Elwood Rutter, outside guard; trustees, Captain Frank Bradycamp, Sergeant Lewis Matt and Traffic Officer Lou Piersol.

Sergeant Arthur Larkin, of Reading, had charge of the installation of officers, assisted by three other Reading police officials, George W. Bierman, Pierce Clark and John Brouse.

The charter of the chapter will be open about three weeks and it is hoped that the lodge will have a membership of 100 per cent. Meetings will be held once each month.
